

ALEXA NATHALIA URIBE VILLEGAS

Nationality: Mexican

Education

---

Alexa Nathalia Uribe Villegas graduated in 2024 with a bachelor's degree in economics from El Colegio de México in Mexico City. She completed the eighth semester of her bachelor's degree at Hitotsubashi University in Tokyo, Japan.

Center for Latin American Monetary Studies

---

She is currently an Analyst in the Economic Research Department of the Center for Latin American Monetary Studies (CEMLA).

Chamber of Deputies

---

2025, Parliamentary Advisor, assisted with macroeconomic indicators and economic issues.

Banco de México

---

2024, Social Service, collaborated on economic issues and research in the Monetary Research Department.

Edwing Van Gameraen

---

2023, Research Assistant, created a panel database for an analysis of migration and health in Mexico.

Raymundo Campos Vázquez

---

2023, Research Assistant, developed a database on wages and employment levels in Latin American and OECD countries.

Almanaque Económico Journal

---

2022-2023, Review Director, reviewed the economic-theoretical content of articles for publication.

IMEF Universitario

---

2020, Director of Promotion and Development, organized university events to promote debates on relevant economic issues.

AIESEC

---

2019, Finance and Legal Affairs Assistant, updated the executive board budget and develop strategies to achieve the division's objectives.

Awards and Distinctions

---

She was recognized as the Best Student at El Colegio de México, Reforma Newspaper, 2023.

Invited by the Banco de México, as one of the best economics students in Mexico City, to attend a meeting at the Banco de México with Governor Victoria Rodríguez and US Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen.