

2025 Latin American Journal of Central Banking (LAJCB) Conference

CALL FOR PAPERS

May 22-23, 2025 – Mexico City (face-to-face)

The Center for Latin American Monetary Studies (CEMLA) is pleased to organize the 2025 edition of the Latin American Journal of Central Banking (LAJCB) Conference, to be held on May 22 - 23, 2025 at CEMLA's headquarters in Mexico City. CEMLA invites paper contributions within the broad range of topics of interest to central banks, including (but not limited to) monetary theory and policy, financial intermediation (both theory and empirics), climate-related aspects of financial stability and monetary policy, digitalization and financial markets, and payments and other financial market infrastructures.

Please note that all papers accepted for the Conference must be submitted to be considered for publication to the Latin American Journal of Central Banking (LAJCB), following the peer-review process. Papers accepted to be presented will be discussed by another speaker within the same session. Accepted papers, presentations, and discussions will be posted on the Conference website to facilitate the discussion among participants.

Keynote speakers

Manuel S. Santos, Miami Herbert Business School
One more Keynote Speaker will be announced briefly

Venue

The Conference will be held at CEMLA's facilities in Mexico City. There is no registration fee. CEMLA will cover economy flights and hotel accommodation for paper presenters.
